CARING FOR CHILDREN...CARING FOR OURSELVES: A SUPPORT GROUP FOR PARENTS OF ADULTS WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

Whether your adult child is a young adult or older adult, you may struggle with the challenges of helping them negotiate their daily lives.

Jewish Family and Children's Service of Greater Philadelphia Can Help!

Be part of a six-session support group designed to help you discover strength and well-being while discussing your concerns with other parents in similar situations.

The group will address questions you may have such as:

- Will my child be able to live in a community independently in which he/she can feel safe and happy?
- Will my child have a network of reliable friends and support?
- Will my child be able to make enough money to support themselves?
- Who will take care of my child when I am no longer here?

Where: Kaiserman Jewish Community Center, Room #10, 45 Haverford Rd. (Haverford and City Line Ave), Wynnewood, PA 19096

When: Thursday Evenings: 12/1, 12/8, 12/15, 12/22, 12/29, and 1/5

Time: 6:00-7:30pm

Cost: $60 for all 6 sessions. Includes a light meal.
(scholarships available based on need)

Led by Lisa Ney, LCSW and Sonia Voynow, LCSW.
